Message from Fr Duane

Lent is a time of prayer, fasting (making sacrifices) and almsgiving (giving generously of our gifts). We have many practical opportunities to take up these Lenten commitments this year.

As we state in our Parish Vision, “we welcome everyone and help each other to discover their unique gifts, joyfully working together as one to bring the overflowing love of Jesus to all people.” You may recall our “Pentecost Gathering” last year, at which our Parish Pastoral Council helped people discover their own unique gifts and invited expressions of interest in sharing those gifts in various “ministries” (ways of service). We knew that not everyone could attend those gatherings, but that EVERYONE is indeed blessed with unique gifts to share, so we were always determined to complete that process by giving every parishioner an opportunity to express their interest in the various ministries. With the lockdowns and uncertainty around Covid this proved difficult – but this weekend, every parishioner will have this opportunity at Masses with a simple checklist that the PPC will provide, and for those unable to attend Mass at this time we will share the same materials via email in a “Google Form” in the coming week.

Feel free to express your interest in as many ministries as you wish, and we will get back to you with more information and formation opportunities for new and existing ministers in the coming weeks and months. Let us also take this opportunity to thank all those who already give of themselves so generously in countless ways behind the scenes.

WAR IN UKRAINE AND FLOODS IN AUSTRALIA

Speaking of bringing the “overflowing love of Jesus to all people”, there are many opportunities to put this into action beyond our parish community as well. As I mentioned last weekend at Masses, it is difficult to watch and hear the news of the present crises in Ukraine and now the floods in Australia. As Christians we should be moved to compassion - but never moved to despair! Let’s remember the power of persistent prayer, always. But let us not stop at prayer - indeed one of the fruits of persistent prayer is that it opens us up to hear how God may be asking us to be part of the answer to the material needs of those who are suffering.

At this stage my own research brings me to Caritas International and the St Vincent De Paul Society as two trustworthy Catholic charities making a real difference in the midst of these crises. Caritas International have been providing assistance on the ground in Ukraine since 2014, and they are bravely continuing their work even in the present crisis, “providing Internally-displaced people on the move with essential information, food, drinking water and personal hygiene kits, as well as a safe and secure place to sleep, eat and wash themselves. Caritas staff and volunteers also provide safe transport for displaced families to reach their loved ones.” You can read more and donate through this link:

<https://www.caritas.org/2022/02/caritas-in-ukraine-the-situation-is-dramatic-but-we-are-staying-to-help/>

In our own nation, the St Vincent De Paul Society has set up two appeals, one for NSW and one for Queensland, and as always responds on the ground with willing volunteers to both the immediate needs and ongoing needs of people. We can donate to the NSW and Qld appeals respectively here:

<https://donate.vinnies.org.au/appeals-nsw/vinnies-nsw-flood-appeal>

<https://donate.vinnies.org.au/appeals-qld/vinnies-disaster-appeal-qld-2022>

If anyone has any other ideas of ways that we can support those who are suffering at this time please don’t hesitate to contact me and let me know. And as we enter this Lenten season, let’s offer our prayers, fasting and almsgiving not only for ourselves and our parish but also for these pressing needs of our brothers and sisters across our nation and the world.

Fr Duane Fernandez — Parish Priest

Message from Sr Kerry

During the week I had a conversation with a very good friend. Maureen was asking me if God was disappointed with us and are we now suffering the consequences? Our God is not a transactional God....responding to us for what we do or don’t do.

Lent commenced on Wednesday. I find Lent can be like a New Year’s resolution. We start off with energy and eagerness but it can be easy to wane. What can keep me focussed? What will motivate me for the next forty days?

In the Gospel we hear Jesus was hungry. What are we hungry for this Lent? How can I satisfy this hunger within me? How can I satisfy the hunger within others?

Should you wish to join a Lenten group you are welcome at the Convent on Tuesday at 10:30 am. Sr Kerry Gardiner

2022 SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM

One of the most profound ways by which Catholics believe we can encounter Jesus is through the Sacraments of the Church. Each Sacrament provides a unique, tangible encounter with Jesus, and helps draw us closer to God and to one another. The Sacraments are significant milestones in the faith journey of not only your children but also your whole family.

Sacramental Program for 2022 is about to begin. If your son or daughter would like to receive sacraments this year, please refer to attached information or pick up the note at the church door.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

On the Fridays of Lent, Stations of the Cross will take place at:

7pm at Immaculate Conception

5pm at St Therese West Wollongong.

MENALIVE'S – REFUEL WEEKLY SHARING AND JOURNALING SESSIONS – EVERY TUESDAY 7.30PM

reFUEL is a weekly hour-long gathering of men every Tuesday evening on Zoom providing the chance to:

- break open the Sunday reading using a Lectio Divina style exercise
- “catch up” with great men from across Australia and New Zealand.
- gain strength and inspiration by the witness of other men.
- pray as a group for individual needs and the needs of others.

AMORIS LAETITIA (THE JOY OF LOVE)

Pope Francis' post-synodal Apostolic Exhortation, Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love) on love in the family is an Apostolic Exhortation published after the conclusion of a two-year synod process discussing both the beauty and challenges of family life today. The 2015 Synod's theme was “the vocation and mission of the family in the Church and the modern world.”

Fr Bernard Gordon and James Arblaster will be presenting a 9-week course on Amoris Laetitia commencing Wed 27 April 2022, 7pm at St Francis Xavier Cathedral in the Monsignor Rigney Meeting Room. To follow the talk, please purchase a copy of Amoris Laetitia from St Pauls Publications. To register please go to: www.lumenchristi.org.au/AmorisLaetitia

6 MARCH 2022—FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT (YEAR C)

First Reading — Deuteronomy 26:4-10 The confession of faith of the elect.

Moses said to the people: 'The priest shall take the panner from your hand and lay it before the altar of the Lord your God. Then, in the sight of the Lord your God, you must make this pronouncement:

"My father was a wandering Aramaean. He went down into Egypt to find refuge there, few in numbers; but there he became a nation, great, mighty, and strong. The Egyptians ill-treated us, they gave us no peace and inflicted harsh slavery on us. But we called on the Lord, the God of our fathers. The Lord heard our voice and saw our misery, our toil and our oppression; and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with mighty hand and outstretched arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders. He brought us here and gave us this land, a land where milk and honey flow. Here then I bring the first-fruits of the produce of the soil that you, the Lord, have given me."

'You must then lay them before the Lord your God, and bow down in the sight of the Lord your God.'

Responsorial Psalm — Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

1. He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: 'My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust! R.
2. Upon you no evil shall fall, no plague approach where you dwell.
For you has he commanded his angels, to keep you in all your ways. R.
3. They shall bear you upon their hands lest you strike your foot against a stone.
On the lion and the viper you will tread and trample the young lion and the dragon. R.
4. His love he set on me, so I will rescue him; protect him for he knows my name.
When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you,' I will save him in distress and give him glory. R.

Second Reading — Romans 10:8-13 The confession of faith of the believers in Christ.

Scripture says: The word, that is the faith we proclaim, is very near to you, it is on your lips and in your heart. If your lips confess that Jesus is Lord and if you believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, then you will be saved. By believing from the heart you are made righteous; by confessing with your lips you are saved. When scripture says: those who believe in him will have no cause for shame, It makes no distinction between Jew and Greek: all belong to the same Lord who is rich enough, however many ask his help, for everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Gospel Acclamation: Praise and honour to you Lord Jesus Christ!

No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.

Praise and honour to you Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel — Luke 4:1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus was led by the Spirit through the wilderness where he was tempted

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry. Then the devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.' But Jesus replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone.'

Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and the glory of these kingdoms, for it has been committed to me and I give it to anyone I choose. Worship me, then, and it shall all be yours.' But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God,
and serve him alone.'

Then he led him to Jerusalem and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said to him 'throw yourself down from here, for scripture says:

He will put his angels in charge of you to guard you,

and again:

They will hold you up on their hands
In case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

But Jesus answered him, 'It has been said:

You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Having exhausted all these ways of tempting him, the devil left him, to return at the appointed time.
