Message from Fr Duane

This weekend we have the great privilege of celebrating the most wonderful gift Jesus gave us: the gift of his very Self in the Eucharist. In the words of The Catechism of the Catholic Church, the Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life”, which contains “the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself”, it is “the sum and summary of our faith”, and “a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, a bond of charity”. It is fitting that our Parish Vision begins with these words: “we are a diverse community united by our love for Jesus and for one another, constantly seeking to grow in this love especially through the Eucharist”. It is also fitting at this time to give thanks to the many priests who will ensure that the Eucharist can continue to be celebrated during my trip to Canada, and I take this opportunity to thank them all by name: Fr Paul Gurr, Fr David O’Brien, Fr Peter Gardiner, Fr Bernard Gordon, Fr Dominic Gleeson – and Fr Jerzy Slowinski for weekday Masses. Thanks also to our lay leaders who will take on extra responsibility in my absence – more details to follow in coming weeks. My last weekend Masses here will be on July 3rd, so I will see you for a few more weeks yet!

REFUGEE WEEK

On this Feast, let’s remember that the Catechism also reminds us that “The Eucharist commits us to the poor. To receive in truth the Body and Blood of Christ given up for us, we must recognize Christ in the poorest, his brothers and sisters” (paragraph 1397). Refugee week (Sunday 19 June to Saturday 25 June) gives us an opportunity to become more aware of the plight of our most vulnerable brothers and sisters throughout the world. The Australian Catholic Migrant and Refugee Office and the Office for Justice, Ecology and Peace invite us all to participate in an online prayer service to pray for asylum seekers and refugees to mark Refugee Week. DIOCESAN FEAST – IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

Next Sunday, 26th June, is our Diocesan Patronal Feast – the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This is especially significant for our Parish, being dedicated in a special way to Mary, the Immaculate Conception. It will also be our first “Family Mass”. You might wonder what “Family Mass” means – after all, every Mass is for everyone! As a Parish we must constantly seek new ways to connect with those who are not yet regularly joining us for the Eucharist, and we all know that young families especially find it difficult to attend Mass regularly these days, for many reasons. We are deeply grateful for the young families that do join us every Sunday and we must continue to welcome and encourage them. The “Family Mass” will include some extra efforts to help young families who may not regularly attend to feel at home with us – including giving some appropriate roles to children, choosing music that will be more familiar to many children, and preaching that will attempt to connect more with the children (pray for me!) There will also be a special morning tea after the Mass – with thanks as always to the Catholic Women’s League who always give so generously of themselves behind the scenes in our parish. Let’s pray for the success of our Family Mass and continue to work towards helping young families feel at home at all of our Masses.

Message from Sr Kerry

Last Saturday several parishioners were present at a gathering titled, ‘Eucharist the Sacrifice We Offer.’ To all whom I have spoken we gained much by being there. We very much received the message we are the body of Christ. It took me back some years to where I heard in a homily that Eucharist is a verb and not a noun. That can be challenging! Liturgy, unless lived, is just ritual.

On Thursday I was present at a school Mass. The final hymn sung by the children summed up Eucharist. <https://youtu.be/pvddWibgS2E>

While this may not be your favourite presentation of a hymn look past that and take the words, ‘Let your light change the world.’ Can you accept the challenge?

Do not forget the Family Mass next Sunday. Thanks to those who worked on the liturgy, our musicians and choir and St Pius School staff. Morning tea along with a cake and goods stall will be held after the Mass. Thank you to the CWL who have taken a highly active part in bringing this together. Eftpos will not be available.

Update from Rachel Walsh

I want to thank you all for continuing to hold me in your prayers throughout this new journey. I have most certainly felt the graces. Pre-Novitiate year with the sisters has been both amazing and life-changing. It is simultaneously the hardest thing I have ever done and yet the most rewarding. I love all the opportunities I have been given with ministry and study, although currently my favourite ministry is with our Longstay caravan park people. They are a group of elderly people who we get to hang out with and run retreat days for each week. My favourite lifestyle change would have to be being able to have my Fridays set aside each week for simple fasting and prayer. It has been amazing to witness what God has done in and through me just from having an extra day each week set aside for Him. Anyways, your continued prayers are always welcomed and cherished. And be sure that I am continuing to pray for you all too. Blessings, Rachel.

SOCIAL JUSTICE STATEMENT

In practice, what does it mean to live this love? Before giving us this commandment, Jesus had washed the disciples' feet; then, after giving it, he gave himself up to the wood of the cross. To love means this: to serve and to give one's life. To serve, that is, not to put our own interests first: to clear our systems of the poison of greed and competitiveness; to fight the cancer of indifference and the worm of self-referentiality; to share the charisms and gifts that God has given us. Specifically, we should ask ourselves, "What do I do for others?" That is what it means to love, to go about our daily lives in a spirit of service, with unassuming love and without seeking any recompense.—Pope Francis, 15 May 2022

19 JUNE—THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (YEAR C)

First Reading— Genesis 14:1-20 Melchizedek brought bread and wine

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing:
‘Blessed be Abram by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.’
And Abram gave him a tithe of everything.

Responsorial Psalm — You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek

1. The Lord’s revelation to my Master:
‘Sit on my right:
your foes I will put beneath your feet. R.
2. The Lord will wield from Zion
your sceptre of power:
Rule in the midst of all your foes. R.
3. A prince from the day of your birth
on the holy mountains;
from the womb before the dawn I begot you. R.
4. The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.
‘You are a priest for ever,
a priest like Melchizedek of old. R.

Second Reading — 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the death of the Lord.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, ‘This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.’ In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, ‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.’ Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia! I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever. Alleluia!

Gospel — Luke 9:11-17 They all eat and were filled.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, ‘Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.’ He replied, ‘Give them something to eat yourselves.’ But they said, ‘We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.’ For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, ‘Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.’ They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.
